

A resort and residential community that combines exclusive style with relaxed island living. Picture a place where tradition, tranquility, and true respect for nature create an exceptional lifestyle for individuals seeking luxury real estate for a primary residence or vacation home.

Kiawah Island

Located just 30 minutes south of historic Charleston, this sun-washed barrier island offers both sophistication and simplicity. Here you can dine in five-star luxury or spread a simple picnic on the beach. You can accept the challenge of seven legendary golf courses or relax in a gently swaying hammock on a golden afternoon. You'll appreciate how architecturally distinguished homes are tucked discretely into a landscape of serene tidal marshes, lush maritime forests, and a ten-mile ribbon of pristine beach.
